

Partnership Agreement

As a TalkAutism partner your organization will benefit by the following:

- Premium placement on TalkAutism.org's home page and throughout the site
- Prominent recognition at a minimum of 10 autism conferences, including pre-show marketing efforts
- Placement on TalkAutism exhibit property and inclusion in our "About our Partners" hand-out. In addition, your organization's materials are distributed in our booth (as available).
- Additional recognition through direct mail, presentations, and public relations efforts
- First priority on ExpertFind searches; including a dedicated information page, link to your website and email a friend capability
- Access to VirtualSpeaker's Media Library, where your digital presentations are made available through TalkAutism.org, as well as other organizations that have embedded VirtualSpeaker
- Reduced rates to provide your own branded multimedia programs online and accessible from many websites
- A TalkAutism representative will attend at least one of your conferences during the year

Agreement

This constitutes a letter of agreement between TalkAutism and the partnering organization that the above services listed above will be delivered for one year in exchange for the partnership fee indicated below.
